PLAINTIFF'S RESPONSE TO THE DEFENDANTS FILING OF THE JOINT STATEMENT

NOW COMES Plaintiff, Leonard A. Szplett, Pro Se, Response to the Defendants Filing of the Joint Statement due on July 10, 2019 and for his good cause shown in support of his response Plaintiff states the following; THAT:

1. Plaintiff comes before the court in reference to the joint statement that was to have been filed on July 10, 2019.
2. Plaintiff was not aware that this statement was due on that date.

3. Defendants counsel did not make Plaintiff aware of this upcoming deadline nor did;
4. Defendants provide a copy of this statement for review and or approval until late afternoon toward the close of the business day that the statement was due. (See Attachment)
5. For the record Plaintiff does not agree with line items A5 & E.
6. Plaintiff's records indicate that Mario Lopez has been properly served.
7. Additionally, Plaintiff has not received a copy of the filed joint statement.
8. Plaintiff asks the court to take note of this.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests that this Honorable Court grant take note that Plaintiff was not unresponsive, but unaware and that he has noted his objections to the specified line items.

Thank you for asking for my input in this court status request. Due to the short notice I wasn't able to respond in timely fashion to you.

I would appreciate more time in the future to review responses to the court.

Thank you.
